VJTI SCHOLARSHIP & FINANCIAL AID GUIDE 2025-26

VJTI offers various government and private scholarships to support students from diverse socio-economic backgrounds.

1. Government Scholarships (MahaDBT)

The majority of scholarship applications are processed through the MahaDBT Portal.

1.1 Rajarshi Chhatrapati Shahu Maharaj Fee Concession (EBC)

- Eligibility: Open category students with family income less than ₹8 Lakhs per annum.
- Benefit: 50% waiver on Tuition Fees and Development Fees.

1.2 Hostel Maintenance Allowance (DTE)

- Eligibility: SC/ST/OBC students staying in government or recognized private hostels with low family income.
- Benefit: Monthly allowance for living expenses.

1.3 Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh Vastigruh Nirvah Bhatta Yojna

- Eligibility: Children of registered laborers or marginal farmers.
- Benefit: Financial assistance for hostel accommodation.

2. Category-Based Scholarships

- SC/ST Freeship/Scholarship: 100% tuition fee waiver for students with income below ₹2.5 Lakhs (Scholarship) or above (Freeship).
- OBC/VJNT/SBC: Concessions in tuition fees based on income slabs.

3. National Scholarships (NSP)

- Post-Matric Scholarships for Minorities: For Muslim, Christian, Sikh, Buddhist, Jain, and Parsi students.
- Central Sector Scheme: For students who scored in the top 20th percentile in their Class 12th exams.

4. Private & Institutional Aid

- VJTI Alumni Association Scholarships: Need-cum-merit based aid provided by former students.
- Tata Trust Scholarships: Merit-based grants for engineering students.
- Corporate CSR Scholarships: Schemes from companies like Cummins, L&T, and Reliance.

5. Application Timeline

- Opening: Usually August/September.
- Deadline: Typically December/January.
- Documents Required: Income Certificate (Tahsildar issued), Caste Certificate, Domicile, Fee Receipt, and Bank Passbook (linked to Aadhar).

Action Required: Students must ensure their Aadhar card is linked to their bank account and that "NPCI Mapping" is active to receive scholarship funds directly.